Lecture 15: Learning to Rank (with GBDTs)

- Machine learned relevance: Rank the documents displayed in search results
    - We used to rank with traditional ranking functions using a very small number of features; possible to tune weighting coefficient by hand.
    - But modern (web) systems use a great number of features.